F Numb. 154

The Daily Courant.

Wedneſday, October 14. 1702.

From the Paris Gazette, Dated Oct. 14.

Hambourg, Sept. 29.

LEtters from Berlin of the 25th adviſe, That the Elector of Brandenburg has made a review of 2 Regiments of the Duke of Saxe-Gotha, which he has taken into his Service; and that he has order'd them to march with other Troops towards the Ducal Pruſſia, to hinder the Forces of the Kings of Sweden and Poland from taking Winter-Quarters in thoſe parts: And that General Flemming, Envoy from the King of Poland at Berlin, has obtain'd a Succour of 6000 Pruſſians for the King of Poland.

From the Paris Gazette a la main, Dated Oct. 13.

The Heer Palmequiſt the Swediſh Envoy at this Court is to go for Holland, to ſupply the place of Baron Lilienroot Ambaſſador to the States General, who is call'd home by the King of Sweden to ſucceed Chancellor Oxenſtiern, in quality of Secretary of State only. And the Heer Croumſtroon, who has been here a long time, has receiv'd Power and Inſtructions from his Swediſh Majeſty to remain in the room of the Heer Palmequiſt.

From the Harlem Courant, Dated Oct. 17.

Heydelberg, Oct. 7. On Thurſday next the King and Queen of the Romans will ſet out from hence for Wurtsburg, from whence they will go on to Vienna. The French have been oblig'd by the Fire of the Imperialiſts, to quit ſome of their Works about Fort St. Louis.

Ments, October 10. The taking of Nortlingen by the Elector of Bavaria is not confirm'd; but 'tis certain that 17 Regiments of Imperial Horſe, Dragoons, and Foot, are marching to attack him.

Amſterdam, October 16. Letters from Dantzick of the 7th adviſe, That the King of Poland is ſtill at Warſaw, but that he was ſhortly expected at Toorn, thro' which place 2000 Foot have march'd towards Pruſſia. That the King of Sweden is at Cracow; that General Brant has fallen upon 3 or 400 Sweeds, moſt of which were kill'd, and the reſt made Priſoners with a Booty of 2000 Rixdollars in ſpecie.

They write from Weſel of the 13th, That Fireworkers were at work night and day, to make Preparations for the Siege of Rhinberg or Bonn. 'Tis reported that there are not 600 ſerviceable Men in Rhinberg, ſo that they cannot ſufficiently man the Outworks. The French Deputies who are come out of the Spaniſh Gelderland to Weſel, have not yet been able to conclude any thing, for that the King of Pruſſia will not abate of his Demand of 300000 Rixdollars.

They write from Coningsberg of the 6th, That Advice was come thither from the Court of Pruſſia, that the Peace was as good as concluded between the Kings of Poland and Sweden, the only Point in diſpute being about admitting the Czar of Muſcovy into it, which the King of Sweden is averſe to. 'Tis ſaid the Poliſh Nobility will incline the King of Poland to exclude the Czar.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated Oct. 17.

Breſlau, October 4. The King of Poland has again commanded Monſieur du Heron the French Reſident to depart the Kingdom, warning him not to depend on his Character, which for the future will be not at all conſider'd by his Majeſty.

Frankfort, October 11. A Perſon has been ſiez'd here, who pretends to be an Imperial Courier, but is ſuſpected to come from the Elector of Cologne; the Letters that he had about him are ſent to the King of the Romans.

Vienna, October 4. Two days ago the Marqueſs del Vaſto was choſen Gentleman of the Bed-Chamber to the Arch-Duke.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated Oct. 16.

The Bridge of Boats that was at Duſſeldorp, is carry'd to Cologne, and will be made uſe of in the Siege of Bonn. The Magiſtrates of Cologne ſent Deputies to their Elector, to deſire him, for the Safety of his Perſon, to retire out of Bonn into their City, but he was already gone towards Luxemburg.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Oct. 17.

Letters from Paris of the 9th ſay, That the King was extremely ſurpris'd at the retreat of the Amirante of Caſtile into Portugal: That it was reported, that his Majeſty ſhould ſay to the Marqueſs of Caſtel dos Rios (the Spaniſh Ambaſſador at the Court of France) That 'twas well for the Amirante that he did not come into France, for he would have been ſecur'd from going out again. And that it was adviſ'd from Madrid, That a Guard of ſix Men was oppointed to wait in the Queen's Apartments every night, ſhe having heard the noiſe of turning a Key in the Lock of her Chamber-door. This is a great Novelty, the Queens of Spain having never had any other Guards about their Lodgings than Women.

London, October 13.

This day the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen of this City, waited on Her Majeſty at St. James's to congratulate her Safe Return. The Recorder made a Speech, and in the Cloſe invited Her Majeſty to Honour the City with Her Royal Preſence on the Lord Mayor's Day. Her Majeſty was graciouſly pleas'd to accept of the Invitation.
